

Subject Links:

You can run Aspiration Events throughout the year using the Primary Futures platform to source volunteers who can support your curriculum subjects.

Maths: Pharmacist, Architect, Builder/Joiner, Accountant

 'Using problem solving in real life' Invite volunteers from the world of work to talk about how they use problem solving every day.

English: Journalist, Author, Poet, Publisher, Librarian
Theatre Worker.

 Tie a volunteer talk or 'What's my line?' assembly with World Book Day! (5th March)

Science: Pharmacist, Scientist, Medical Professional

 Have a 'Celebrating the NHS' assembly or tie this into Health Eating Week (June) or your Science Week!

IT: Computer Programmer, Software Designer, Communications Manager, Website Specialist.

 'Imagining our future day', hear from visitors with roles in technology, or ask volunteers to coach a Dragons Den activity.

Art: Artist, Designer, Photographer, Illustrator, Media Worker

 Have an Arts week to celebrate your students creativity!

History: Museum Curator, Archaeologist, Theatre Worker, Local Historian

 Tie this in with Local History Month (May) or Black History Month (October).

Music/ Performance: Sound technician, Musician, Actor, Theatre Worker

 Have an actor/theatre professional give performance tips before a school performance.

P.E: Sports Coach, Sports Writer, Physiotherapist, Dietician

 Do lots of your students want to be footballers? Invite guests in to celebrate Sports Week and explain how their career supports sports.

Languages: Translator, University student, Language Teacher

 Invite a guest that uses languages in the workplace, to speak about the importance of understanding different cultures.